Volume 2, Issue 1 www.roxiesfund.org Spring 2007

GoodSearch: searching for a good cause!

Tu-se is Cherokee for "speaker" and he is available for adoption!

Do you use a search engine while online? And do you love dogs? Well, then check out Roxie's Fund's GoodSearch!! GoodSearch is a search engine powered by Yahoo! so you know it's good.

Founded in 2005, GoodSearch donates 50% of its profits directly to charities and schools chosen by users. And the money comes from advertisers, so it is free for users, yet charities receive about one cent per search!

It's super easy to use! Just go to www.goodsearch.com and enter (or search for) your charity in the middle of the page and type your search in the Search box. Once your charity is entered, you can see how much we have raised! In just a month with a few users trying it out, we have $2. Ok, not much, but now that we are spreading the word, please help us! You can even quickly install a GoodSearch toolbar and there are easy links to share this with your friends and family, too.

Roxie's Fund chosen for Benefit Dinner!

The University of Baltimore Student Animal Legal Defense Fund has chosen to honor Roxie's Fund with a benefit dinner on Saturday, April 21 from 6 to 9 pm. This group, consisting primarily of working law students, periodically hosts fundraisers for animal rescue and welfare organizations.

On April 21st, the gourmet vegan dinner will be Business Student Center and all are welcome to attend. Guest speaker Susan Adams from the Humane Society of the US will address the audience, and Roxie's Fund representatives will be on hand as well.

Spokesperson April Savoy says that Roxie's Fund was chosen due to their professionalism, love and commitment to animals, and lack of restriction to a specific breed.

For more information or to purchase tickets, please email or call April at 443-562-7643 or asavoy5@comcast.net. More details can also be

Disaster Prep for your Pets

In the wake of 9/11 and recent natural disasters, you may have prepared your home and family for a disaster situation. But have you prepared your pets?

There are several good websites with information, including FEMA and the Humane Society of the US. Here is a brief list of supplies:

- Pet food and treats
- Drinkable water in plastic bottles
- Can opener if needed
- Pet medications and medical records in a waterproof container
- Sturdy leashes, harnesses and/or carriers so you can move your pets safely and they can't escape
- Current photos
- Veterinarian contact information
- Pet beds and toys, if there is room
- Collar and identification tags
- Have your dog micro-chipped, it's one tag that can't get lost!

Place these items in a duffel or plastic storage tote so they are ready to go when you need to!

Happy Ending for Klondike and Blackie

Klondike came into a local shelter as a stray and it was love at first sight for the shelter staff. Such a big teddy bear! They knew Klondike deserved a wonderful new home and called Roxie's Fund to help. Klondike loves everyone he meets. He always has a wag and a smile for all of his new friends. His favorite things are playing chase in the yard, his gingerbread squeaky man, and now, his new family!

Klondike has been adopted by a couple who saw his picture and biography and immediately knew he was the dog they had been looking for. They were so sure, that they drove 3 hours each way to come and meet their new addition, and boy is Klondike glad they did! He is now in a home where he is loved and appreciated for the big goofy sweet boy that he is. And they even got him a new gingerbread man, too!

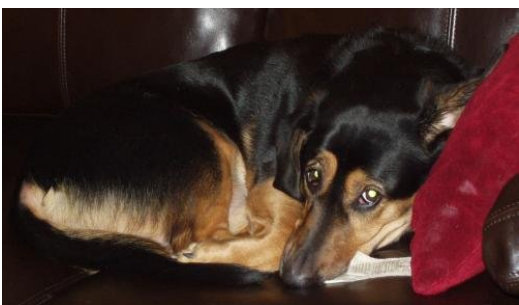

Blackie came to Roxie's Fund after he was found wandering the streets for several days. Blackie seemed very afraid of people initially and looked a little thin. We came to learn Blackie was owned by a family and kept getting out of his yard. He wasn't really part of the family, and was relinquished to animal control. After a visit to the vet and TLC, Blackie came to love all people he would meet. He is terrific with other dogs and would always give dogs and people kisses. Blackie spent just a few weeks in rescue before a wonderful family adopted him. Blackie has found his forever home and now is surrounded by love with a family that adores him.

Klondike and Blackie got second chances and are in new homes with the help of Roxie's Fund, and YOU!

Brutus needs a home!

With a name like Brutus, were you thinking of a bigger dog? Well, dear Brutus is an awesome basset hound and beagle mix! And one thing he knows for sure is that Roxie's Fund is there for him. Brutus was adopted out into a loving home by Roxie's Fund and all was great in his life until his owner passed away. We are committed to each dog for their whole life, and now it is time for us to help Brutus to find a new family!

Brutus is baby and kid tested!

(do you see the toys in the picture on the previous page?) He does well with other dogs, also. With a soft, silky coat, he is great for petting and cuddling. A great, fun dog who is well-behaved and beautiful, what more could you want? Call to meet Brutus today.

Your donations have helped dogs like Brutus get a second chance. Brutus is currently available for adoption.

We appreciate your feedback on our newsletter!

Please Support Roxie's Fund

Roxie's Fund is dedicated to meeting all the needs of the dogs we bring into our program—basic necessities, medical care, and behavioral or specialized training. We go beyond what others can do and do not turn away a dog simply because of a treatable problem. However, this costs money!! We do not recoup all of our expenses from the adoption donation and rely on donors such as yourself. Please consider making a tax deductible donation today.

Membership: Join Roxie's Fund Membership Circle! You and your pets can help fight for homeless animals. $35 plus $5 for each additional pet you would like to include.

Sponsorship: The typical dog stays with Roxie's Fund for 6 weeks and costs $350 in care—that's over $50 a week! Would you consider sponsoring a dog for all or part of his/her 6 week stay?

Please clip off this portion and return with your tax-deductible donation to 12208 Judson Rd, Silver Spring, MD 20902 or make your donation online at www.roxiesfund.org
